President's Message February 28, 2017

Every month each one who is a Rotarian receives the Rotarian magazine. Service Above Self is defined in the Object of Service, The Four-Way Test and the Rotarian Code of Conduct. Service is our goal, the way we serve is up to the individual. Yours in Rotary Service, Dane Smith

Today's Program

Carisa Hettich, Executive Director for the Red Cross, will discuss two new programs: The Fire Campaign (installing free smoke detectors) and the Prepare Out Loud program (information about the Cascadia Subduction Zone). This spring, the organization will hold events about the programs in Coos Bay. Find out more at today's meeting.

Auction Fundraiser Planning

Did you know that Oregon Lottery Scratch Its make a great stuffer in the Rotary Pinata? The Pinata will be auctioned at our May fundraiser. Other great items include cash, gift cards, certificates for products or services.

More on the Auction

The Rotary Auction planning committee has been meeting to organize the May 6th event. Tickets are now available for purchase at $50 each or you can buy a table and receive a discount. Purchase your tickets at a Rotary Weekly Club Meeting or stop by Marshfield Bargain House and talk to President-elect Steve Schneiderman. Credit Cards are welcome.

Organizers are also collecting wine for the “Rotary Wine Cellar” at the weekly meeting. If you’d like to have someone purchase a bottle of wine for you, see Secretary Tom Bennett. This years’ theme is fiesta “Seis de Mayo.” Pictured above is Laurie Hall at a 2016 “team theme” event.

PETS Update

President-Elect Steve Schneiderman and Bay Area Sunrise President-Elect were two local Rotarians who attended President-Elect Training in Sea-Tac, Washington this past weekend. The Training Sessions focused on Building on the Basics (Rotary Knowledge). Also, Attending was District Governor Nominee and Coos Bay-North Bend Rotarian Bill Grile. Grile will be District 5110 Governor in 2018 - 2019. The Coos Bay North Bend Club will host the District Conference in 2019 at the Mill Casino.

Upcoming Events:

- District Training Assembly, April 8, Cottage Grove
- Prefontaine Rotary Invitational Track & Field, April 15.
- Rotary Auction: Seis de Mayo, May 6, Mill Casino
- District Conference, May 18-21, Albany (Stipend may be available for Attendees)
