President's Message

September 12, 2017

This coming weekend is our Rotary Cruz the Coos. We will be passing around a signup sheet at club and we could use your help Saturday evening. We will meet at 5:00 in City Council Chambers for a Pre-Cruise briefing then head out to the streets.

A committee of Rotarians, and some non-Rotarians have been working months to prep for the event. I want to thank Russ Clark, Bogue Morgan, Stephanie Kilmer, Dave Wilcox, Randy Thompson, Amy Bailey, Janelle Kiewert, Krista Kilmer, and Mike 'The Bear' Chavez for all the hard work.

Since this is such a big weekend, let's have a Picnic next Tuesday at 5:00. Simpson Park is the place. Bring your family and enjoy burgers, hot dogs, Salmon, Tuna and all the fixin's. There'll be beer, wine, water and soda. No club meeting that day. See you there.

Sincerely, Pres. Steve

Today's Program

The Honorable Judge Richard Barron who recently retired in June after 37 years as a Coos County Circuit Court Judge of the 15th District. He was sworn in by Gov. Vic Atiyeh in 1980. During his tenure he became known as a tough judge who was a champion for juveniles. He was honored with the Wallace P. Carson Jr. Award for Judicial Excellence.
